GENERAL CLAUSES

1. In this agreement, references to his or he should be read as his/her or he/she.
2. The University is a specified educational institution within the meaning of Paragraph 8 of Schedule 1 to the Housing Act 1988 and the tenancy granted by this agreement is not an assured shorthold tenancy. There is no obligation on the University to protect the Deposit in a government approved scheme and no statutory periodic tenancy will arise at the end of the Tenancy Term.

AGREEMENT TO LET

3. The University lets and the Tenant takes the Room for the Tenancy Term at the Rent payable above.

OWNERSHIP AND PERMISSIONS TO LET

4. The University warrants that it is legally entitled to grant this tenancy and that it has obtained the appropriate consent from its superior landlord.
5. The University agrees to pay all rents or other sums due to any superior landlord for the duration of the Tenancy Term.

THE UNIVERSITY'S OBLIGATIONS

6. The University agrees:

Possession

- 6.1. To give the Tenant possession of the Room in good repair and in a habitable condition at the start of the Tenancy.

Non Disturbance

- 6.2. Not to interrupt or interfere with the Tenant's right to quiet possession and enjoyment of the Room.

Racial and other harassment

- 6.3. Not to commit or allow any, contractors or agents to commit any form of harassment on the grounds of race, colour, age, religion, sex, sexual orientation, gender assignment or disability which may cause offence to the Tenant or the Tenant's visitors.

Remedy of defects

- 6.4. To keep in good repair and habitable condition, the structure and exterior of the Room and the Property including:
 - 6.4.1. drains, gutters and external pipes
 - 6.4.2. outside walls, outside doors, windows, including necessary external painting and decorating
 - 6.4.3. internal walls, floors and ceilings, doors and door frames, door hinges and skirting boards
 - 6.4.4. pathways, steps or other means of access
 - 6.4.5. plasterwork
 - 6.4.6. integral garages and stores
 - 6.4.7. boundary walls and fences
- 6.5. provided that the University shall not be responsible for problems of this nature resulting from failings of the Tenant or the Tenant's visitors.

Repair of common parts

- 6.6. To take reasonable care to keep the common parts of the Property, including any common rooms, entrances, halls, stairways, lifts, passageways and including their electric lighting, in reasonable repair and fit for use by the Tenant and other occupiers and visitors to the Property.

Repair of installations

- 6.7. To keep in good repair and proper working order any installations provided by the University or its superior landlord for space heating, water heating and sanitation and for the supply of water, gas and electricity, including:
 - 6.7.1. basins, sinks, baths, toilets, flushing systems and waste pipes
 - 6.7.2. electric wiring including sockets and switches, gas pipes and water pipes
 - 6.7.3. water heaters, fireplaces, fitted fires and central heating installations

Repair of appliances

6.8. To keep in good repair and proper working order any mechanical or electrical appliances listed in the Inventory (for example, this may be the washing machine, TV, vacuum cleaner, etc.)

Infestations and mould

6.9. To keep the Property and the Room free of infestations and mould at all times, provided that the University shall not be responsible for problems of this nature resulting from failings of the Tenant or the Tenant's visitors.

Gas Safety

6.10. To comply with the Gas Safety (Installation and Use) Regulations 1998 by ensuring that all gas appliances flues and installation pipe-work in the Property are checked by a Gas Safe-registered installer on an annual basis and that a record is kept stating the defects found (if any) and the remedial action taken and that the Tenant receives a copy of the Gas Safety Record before the Tenant takes up occupation.

Furniture and furnishings

6.11. To ensure that all furniture and furnishings provided comply with the Furniture and Furnishings (Fire)(Safety) Regulations 1988 (as amended).

Damage to the Property

6.12. If the Property or any part of it is damaged by reason of any fire, flood or other disaster, or by breach of the University's obligations under the Tenancy, so as to make the Room unfit for occupation, the Tenant's liability for rent or a fair proportion of it according to the nature and extent of the damage, shall cease. The liability for rent shall not recommence until all necessary remedial works are completed so as to make the Property and the Room fit for habitation. Any such reduction in rent shall not affect any other right to compensation that the Tenant may have. This provision does not apply where the damage is caused because of any act or failing of the Tenant or the Tenant's visitors.

Provision of a telephone line

6.13. To ensure that a telephone line is connected physically to the Property, although if the Tenant wants to make use of the line then the cost of reconnecting the telephone service and for paying for use during the Tenancy Term shall not be the responsibility of the University and the Tenant will need to agree how this will be done with the other occupants of the Property.

Provision of tools

6.14. To provide the Property with a vacuum cleaner, garden tools (if there is a garden) and other devices to enable the Tenant to fulfil the obligations in relation to cleaning and gardening below.

THE TENANT'S OBLIGATIONS

7. The Tenant agrees:

Possession

7.1. To take possession of the Room at the start of the Tenancy .

Rent

7.2. To pay the Rent in advance on the dates specified in the schedule to this agreement.

7.3. To pay any council tax that falls due at any stage of the Tenancy as a result of the Tenant no longer being entitled to any exemption as a student or otherwise.

Water, gas and electricity and telephone charges

- 7.4. To pay a reasonable proportion of the water, gas, electricity and telephone charges consumed by or supplied to the Property during the Tenancy Term. The Tenant should try to agree the proportion of the shared outgoings with the other tenants in the Property. In the absence of agreement with the other occupiers, the Tenant must notify the University of the disagreement and then pay the proportion that the University assesses as the Tenant's fair share of the outgoings.

Use of the Property

- 7.5. To use the Room and the Property for residential purposes only, it being a requirement of the Tenancy that the Tenant must at all times during the Tenancy Term pursue a full time course of study at the College named by the Tenant in the Tenant's Application for this tenancy.
- 7.6. Not to operate a business at the Property.
- 7.7. Not to use the Property for any illegal or immoral purpose.
- 7.8. To share the use of the Property amicably and peacefully with the tenants of the other rooms in the Property and not to interfere with or obstruct such shared occupation in any way.
- 7.9. To refrain from smoking, or allowing any guests or visitors to smoke, within the property or at any of the open windows of the property.

Nuisance

- 7.10. Not to cause or allow any of the Tenant's visitors to do anything likely to cause alarm, nuisance or annoyance to the University, the Tenant's neighbours or other tenants of the Property. In particular:
- 7.10.1. Not to play or allow to be played any audio equipment or musical instrument so loudly that it causes a nuisance or annoyance to other tenants or neighbours at any time.
- 7.10.2. To use the shared parts of the Property and the Building quietly and co-operatively.

Harassment

- 7.11. Not to commit or allow the Tenant's visitors to commit any form of harassment on the grounds of race, colour, religion, age, sex, sexual orientation, gender assignment or disability which may cause offence to any other tenants, visitors or neighbours, or staff of the University or its agents or contractors, or the superior landlord or its agents or contractors.

Notices received

- 7.12. The Tenant shall immediately forward to the University any notices received by the Tenant that relate to the Property.

Improvements and alterations

- 7.13. Not to make improvements, alterations or additions to the Room or the Property including the erection of a television aerial, external decoration and additions to or alterations to, the University's installations, fixtures and fittings.

Risk of fire or other peril

- 7.14. Not to do anything that will increase the risk of fire, flood or other damage or danger to the Property, in particular:
- 7.14.1. Not to bring into the Property paraffin heaters or portable Calor gas heaters
- 7.14.2. Not to bring into the Property any portable electrical appliance with voltage exceeding 50kw unless it is double insulated or has been PAT inspected for safety within the past three years and labelled accordingly.

- 7.14.3. to allow University staff to inspect any portable electrical appliance kept by the Tenant in the Property and to remove it if told by University staff that it may be unsafe.

Damage

- 7.15. Not to damage the exterior, structure or any part of the Property.

Garden

- 7.16. On his own and along with the other tenants of the rooms in the Property, to care for the garden, if any, and not to damage the garden or fences, subject to the University providing and maintaining appropriate garden tools for this purpose.

Pets

- 7.17. Not to keep any animals, including fish, reptiles or birds in the Room or the Property.

Interior

- 7.18. To keep the interior of the Room in good, clean and tidy condition, subject to the University providing and maintaining a vacuum cleaner, and other appropriate implements for this purpose.
- 7.19. On his own and along with the other tenants, to keep the shared parts of the Property in good, clean and tidy condition, subject to the University providing and maintaining a vacuum cleaner, and other appropriate implements for this purpose.
- 7.20. Where the Tenant fails in complying with any of the above cleaning obligations, the University may employ a professional cleaner and recover a fair proportion of the cost from the Tenant.

Fixture and fittings

- 7.21. Not to damage the fixtures, furniture and effects in the Room or in the Property as set out in the inventory, nor remove them from the Room or the Property.

Minor maintenance

- 7.22. To carry out small tasks of maintenance within the Room and the Property, for example to empty the vacuum cleaner and replace its filters, to replace and change light bulbs, clean the insides of all windows and the outside of ground-floor windows, to clean, maintain and keep free from all blockages and obstructions all baths, sinks, lavatories, cisterns, outside drains from the Tenant's waste, leaves, etc.

Common parts

- 7.23. Not to leave or store anything on the common stair, if any, so as to cause a nuisance or annoyance to other tenants and to make good any damage to the Property or the fixtures, furniture and effects or to the common parts caused by the Tenant or any visitor of the Tenant to the Property, fair wear and tear excepted, and to pay any costs incurred by the University in carrying out such works in default.

Reporting disrepair

- 7.24. To report to the University any disrepair, defect or failure in respect of the Room or the Property, the fixtures and fittings or mechanical or electrical appliances. The email address to which reports should be made is student.homes@london.ac.uk and the telephone number is 020 7664 4836.

Access

- 7.25. To allow the University, its superior landlord, agents or contractors access at all reasonable hours of the daytime to inspect the condition of the Room and the Property or to carry out repairs or other works or to carry out maintenance of the appliances. (The University will normally give at least 24 hours' notice but the Tenant will give immediate access in an emergency).

- 7.26. To allow the University and/or its superior landlord access to enter and view the Room and the Property with prospective tenants at all reasonable hours. (The University and/or its superior landlord will normally give 24 hours' notice).

Assignment and sub-letting

- 7.27. The Tenant may not assign, sublet or part with possession of all or part of the Property without the University's written consent (which will not be withheld unreasonably but is likely to be in line with the University's assignment policy that can be read via <http://studenthomes.london.ac.uk/welfare-and-support>). The University will require the Tenant to pay the University's reasonable administrative costs for any such assignment or sublet
- 7.28. No assignment, subletting or parting with possession will be permitted unless recorded in writing by means of a document signed by the University, the Tenant, the guarantor and the assignee or sub-tenant.

Lodgers

- 7.29. The Tenant may not take in persons as lodgers under any circumstances.

Property left unattended

- 7.30. Whenever the Property is left unattended, the Tenant must fasten all locks to all doors and windows and activate any burglar alarm, to prevent unauthorised access to the Property. The Tenant should notify the University if s/he intends to leave the Room vacant for a period in excess of 14 days and in such a case, the Tenant shall take all reasonable steps to avoid damage to the Property from burst pipes in freezing weather.

Out of hours service

- 7.31. the Tenant must not make unreasonable or improper use of the University's out of hours contact service

Costs of Enforcement

- 7.32. The Tenant must pay the University's reasonable costs, fees, charges, and expenses properly incurred in relation to or incidental to recovery or attempted recovery of arrears of rent or other sums due under this agreement.

Keys

- 7.33. The Tenant will keep safe any keys or other security devices giving access to the Property, and will pay the University's reasonable costs incurred in consequence of the loss of any such key, or other such device.

RECOVERY OF POSSESSION BY THE UNIVERSITY (FORFEITURE)

- 8.1. The University's rights under this clause arise if and whenever during the Tenancy Term:
- 8.1.1. the Rent is unpaid for 21 days after becoming due, whether formally demanded or not; or
 - 8.1.2. there is a breach by the Tenant of any obligation or other term of this agreement; or
 - 8.1.3. the Room is left unoccupied for more than 28 days continuously otherwise than by prior agreement with the University; or
 - 8.1.4. the Tenant ceases to pursue a full time course of study at the College named in the Tenant's application form for this tenancy.
- 8.2. If and whenever during the Tenancy Term any of the events referred to above occurs, the University may, if it chooses, forfeit (i.e. bring to an end) the Tenancy subject:
- 8.2.1. in the case of unpaid rent, to the Tenant's right to ask the county court for relief from forfeiture upon payment of the arrears and costs; and
 - 8.2.2. in the case of a breach of any obligation other than to pay rent, to the University's obligation to serve notice on the Tenant specifying the breach complained of, requiring its remedy if that is possible and requiring the Tenant to pay compensation in any case, and to allow the Tenant a reasonable time to remedy a breach if that is possible.
- 8.3. If the Room is no longer occupied by the Tenant or anyone else with a lawful right to live in it, the forfeiture will take place by a person acting on behalf of the University re-entering the Room and/or the Property.

- 8.4. If the Tenant is still in occupation the University will abide by the Protection from Eviction Act 1977 by obtaining possession through court proceedings.
- 8.5. If the University chooses to exercise forfeiture, it shall not affect the other rights and remedies of the University, including the right to claim damages from the Tenant or the Guarantor.

Other ways of ending the tenancy

- 8.6. The tenancy will end automatically at the end of the Tenancy Term.

Moving out

- 8.7. The Tenant will give the University vacant possession and return the keys of the Room and/or the Property at the end of the Tenancy and will remove all furniture owned by the Tenant, personal possessions and rubbish and leave the Room, the Property and the University's fixtures and fittings in the same condition, repair, cleanliness and places as at the start of the Tenancy, fair wear and tear excepted.

NOTICES

- 9.1. The Tenant shall immediately forward to the University any notices received by the Tenant that relate to the Property.
- 9.2. The University may serve any notice upon the Tenant by posting it or delivering it by hand to the Property. If the notice is posted first class, it will be taken to be received on the following day. If the notice is delivered before 4:00 p.m. it will be taken to be received on the same day.
- 9.3. The Tenant may serve all notices upon the University by posting it or delivering it by hand to the address given by the University above. If the notice is posted first class, it will be taken to be received on the following day. If the notice is delivered before 4:00 p.m. it will be taken to be received on the same day.

INVENTORY AND DEPOSIT

Inventory

- 10.1. At the start of the tenancy, the University will draw up an inventory. All furniture, fittings and effects in the Room and in the shared parts of the Property will be listed and comments made where appropriate about their condition. The Tenant will verify the inventory. The University and the Tenant will then sign the inventory and copies will be kept by each. Where circumstances change, the inventory may need to be altered. Both the University and the Tenant should sign any alterations and copies will be kept by each.

Deposit

- 10.2. The deposit is paid to ensure that the Tenant pays the rent, performs the obligations in this agreement (including cleaning and the return of keys at the end of the tenancy) and leaves the Room and the Property in the condition they were in at the start of the Tenancy, allowing for fair wear and tear. The deposit shall be the equivalent of one month's rent. It shall be paid to the University or its agent at the start of the tenancy.

Return of Deposit

- 10.3. At the end of the tenancy, if there has been a breach of this agreement, the University may make a deduction from the deposit, to cover the cost of the loss caused. If the breach has caused damage in the shared parts of the Property, the University may require the Tenant to pay a reasonable proportion of the cost of the damage. The University will provide details of any deduction made and the Tenant will be offered a dispute resolution procedure if the Tenant feels the deduction is unjustified.
- 10.4. If the Deposit is insufficient to meet the cost of the damage caused, the Tenant will at the University's written request, pay any additional amount due as a result of the breach.

THE GUARANTOR'S OBLIGATIONS

11. In consideration of the University granting this Tenancy to the Tenant, the Guarantor guarantees the payment by the Tenant of the Rent to the University and the performance and observance by the Tenant of the terms of this agreement. In particular:
 - 11.1. If the Tenant defaults in the payment of the Rent for the period of 21 days the Guarantor upon a written request by the University shall pay the Rent that is in arrears;
 - 11.2. If the Tenant defaults in the performance or observance of any of the provisions on the Tenant's part contained in this agreement, the Guarantor shall pay to the University all losses, damages, expenses and costs that it shall be entitled to recover by reason of the Tenant's default, to the extent to which the University is unable to recover them from the Tenant;
 - 11.3. This guarantee shall continue for the duration of this agreement, but it shall not be revocable or discharged by the death or bankruptcy of the Tenant;
 - 11.4. Furthermore, this guarantee shall not be discharged by the University giving the Tenant time in which to meet his rent or other indulgence in respect of his obligations under this agreement;
 - 11.5. If this agreement is assigned with the written consent of the University or is terminated by agreement or by re-entry or disclaimer or otherwise, all future liability on the part of the Guarantor shall cease.
 - 11.6. the Guarantor's liabilities shall not be affected by any refusal by the University to accept Rent tendered by or on behalf of the Tenant at a time when the University is entitled to seek a court order for possession of the Room
 - 11.7. the Guarantor's liabilities shall not be affected by any variation of the terms of this agreement made by agreement between the University and Tenant, but no variation is to bind the Guarantor to the extent that it is materially prejudicial to him

TENANT'S PROMISES TO THE GUARANTOR

12. The Tenant shall pay to the Guarantor all losses, damages, expenses and costs that the Guarantor suffers as a result of any breach by the Tenant of the terms of this agreement and/or any claim made by the University under the above guarantee.
13. The Tenant accepts that the Guarantor may share any previous and/or forwarding address/ contact details with the University for the purpose of pursuing any debts/ sums owed under this agreement.

DATA PROTECTION

14. The University is subject to data protection legislation and will manage personal data in accordance with the Tenant Privacy Notice.
